It has been observed that in respect of various issues pertaining to University, press statements have been given by persons not authorized to make such statements which has led to unnecessary confusion. Such statements also result in adverse public opinion as these are devoid of entire perspective on the matters.

It is, therefore, directed that no officer of the University shall give statements to the Press / Media unless specifically authorized to do so. PRO shall also ensure that the media release and statements are given after due approval from the Registrar and Vice Chancellor only.
