About Association of Indian Universities (AIU)

Association of Indian Universities (AIU) is an apex inter university representative body of universities and other Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) in the country. Established in 1925 as the Inter University Board (IUB) of India, it acquired its legal status as a registered society in 1967 under the Societies Registration Act 1860 and was rechristened as Association of Indian Universities (AIU) in 1973. AIU is the second oldest university association in the world next to the Association of Commonwealth Universities which was established in 1913. It has the distinct feature of having the largest network of universities and other HEIs under its ambit with 936 members in India and 15 Associated members from foreign countries. The membership of AIU includes all types of universities e.g., Conventional Universities, Open Universities, Deemed to be Universities, State Universities, Central Universities, Private Universities and Institutes of National Importance. In addition to Indian Universities, Universities/Institutes from Bangladesh, Bhutan, Republic of Kazakhstan, Malaysia, Mauritius, Nepal, Thailand, United Arab Emirates and United Kingdom are its Associate Members. Since its inception AIU has played a very significant role in the development of Higher Education in the Country.

Some of the eminent scholars and visionary leaders like Dr. S Radhakrishnan, Dr. SP Mukherjee, Dr. Z Hussain, Sir A L. Mudaliar have given leadership to AIU. During such a long journey, AIU has carved a niche for itself by serving the Ministry of Education, Govt of India as a research-based policy advisory body. Being an apex institution, it constitutes an integral part of all major decision-making committees and commissions in the country. As an academic 'think tank' organization, AIU supports the Government as research based policy advisory body with the wider mandate of taking up research projects on higher education policy, capacity building. It also acts as a bureau of information on higher education; liaise with international bodies and universities for internationalization of Indian higher education among many others. The Vision of AIU is to emerge as a dynamic service and apex advisory organization in India by undertaking such initiatives and programmes which could strengthen and popularize Indian higher education as leading-edge system in the world and promote greater national and international collaboration in Higher Education, Research, Extension, Sports, Youth and Cultural Activities. It is bestowed with the mission of promoting and representing the Indian Universities and other higher education institutions through strong liaison with the government and National/International organizations, sister associations world over and establish liaison between/among universities through active support, cooperation and coordination among the member universities and all its stakeholders for quality education, research and other academics and extension activities.

About Academic and Administrative Development Centre (AADC)

AIU Academic and Administrative Development Center (AADC) in GGSIP University is established under the aegis of Staff Development Cell to facilitate the professional and personal development of the teaching and non-teaching staff. The aim of AADC is to design and implement courses with the twin objective of developing effective professionals and keeping-pace with new emerging trends of IT in educational institutions in view of the New Education Policy (NEP). As the dynamics of delivery techniques in higher education are changing from conventional face-to-face to online to mixed modalities, AADC aims at inculcating such essential skills as demanded by a fast evolving higher education system. This includes digital content production, planning of digital pedagogies, designing of online courses, effective communication in the virtual classroom and online assessment.

AADC is a pioneering initiative of Association of Indian Universities and GGSIP University directed towards training and capacity building of faculty members and administrative functionaries of Universities for dealing with hybrid/blended learning with focus on the latest pedagogical reforms. AADC will offer one week/ two weeks programmes aimed at continuous capacity building of the key stakeholders through online and in-person modes. The thrust areas envisaged for the programmes include but are not limited to the following:

- Continuous knowledge and skill acquisition and enhancement for faculty in order to contribute effectively to the changing landscape of higher education.
- Training administrative staff in higher education institutions with appropriate skills to adapt to emerging information technologies.
- Preparing library professionals and other technical staff in HEIs to contribute to knowledge cum learning and research resources as per global demands and the local needs.
- Introducing research scholars to the principles of academic integrity and professional's ethics.
- Exploring new knowledge domains
- Meeting the implementation challenges of New Education Policy (NEP-2020) in higher education
